

Byron J. Christensen, Ed.

I am the Literacy Coach at Freedom Academy. I received my BS and M.Ed. (1972) degrees at Brigham Young University. My Master's Thesis was on the Influence of Flexible Grouping on Reading Achievement in Ten Fifth Grade Classrooms. I also have an Ed. (1998) from Utah State University. My dissertation was on the Validation of a Criterion Referenced Reading Skills Mastery Test for the Fifth Level of GEMS.

I am married to Patricia B. Christensen and have seven children. Five of our children are married. We have 17 grandchildren. We live in Cedar Hills, Utah. I have been an educator for 35 years. I love teaching children to read better.
