

Freedom Academy is calling for student entries for the

26th Annual Christmas Lamb Art Show

At

The Springville Museum of Art

In the Ingrid F. Nemelka Gallery

From December 2—27., 2011

These works will be juried at the Museum by Dr. Virgil Jacobsen, Curator of Education, and the Education staff.

The museum will select 70 works for the show among entries from students in kindergarten through 10th grade.

Each student that is accepted into the art show will receive a certificate and $10 award provided by the Nemelka family of Mapleton.

Student entries will be due to Ms Labrum by November 7th, 2011.

Each entry needs to include the artist's name, phone #, age, grade, school and teacher's name on the back of the art work. Each student is limited to one entry.

Works for this show should be of a spiritual theme of any religion or belief (Santa Claus images are discouraged.)

The works are to be original and individually conceived by the students, rather than class projects.

No works will be considered if they contain glitter, candy, glued-on beans, macaroni or other materials that tend to fall off when handled.
